COMMITTEE JURISDICTION

EXTRACTS FROM THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE RULE XXV: STANDING COMMITTEES

1. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of each Congress, and shall continue and have power to act until their successors are appointed, with leave to report by bill or otherwise on matters within their respective jurisdictions:

(d)(1) Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials and other matters relating to the following subjects:

1. Banks, banking, and financial institutions;
2. Control of prices of commodities, rents and services;
3. Deposit insurance;
4. Economic stabilization and defense production;
5. Export and foreign trade promotion;
6. Export controls;
7. Federal monetary policy, including Federal Reserve System;
8. Financial aid to commerce and industry;
9. Issuance and redemption of notes;
10. Money and credit, including currency and coinage;
11. Nursing home construction;
12. Public and private housing (including veteran's housing);
13. Renegotiation of Government contracts;
14. Urban development and mass transit.

(2) Such committee shall also study and review, on a comprehensive basis, matters relating to international economic policy as it affects United States monetary affairs, credit, and financial institutions, economic growth, urban affairs, and credit, and report thereon from time to time.

(j)(10) International Monetary Fund and other international organizations established primarily for international monetary purposes (except that, at the request of the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, any proposed legislation relating to such subjects reported by the Committee on Foreign Relations shall be referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs).

PUBLICATIONS INFORMATION

Prepared testimony of witnesses appearing before the Committee are posted to the Committee's website (<http://banking.senate.gov>) according to the date of the hearing, and may be downloaded at no charge.

Transcripts of hearings may be viewed in draft form by visiting the Committee office, but cannot be distributed until they have been officially published by the U.S. Government Publishing Office. Transcripts of bill mark-ups are not published. Hard copies of Committee hearings and Committee prints are also available to the public without charge.

Requests to the Committee for publications should be accompanied by a self-addressed adhesive label (no telephone requests for mailing) and should be directed to:

Document Clerk
Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs
534 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington D.C. 20510-6075

The Committee does not and cannot maintain a permanent mailing list. Documents are distributed on an individual basis until supplies are exhausted.

In general, most Committee publications (hearings, reports to accompany legislation, and conference reports) are available at Government Depository Libraries located throughout the United States. Certain publications of the Committee may also be obtained from the U.S. Government Publishing Office (FDSys: <https://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/>) for a minimal charge or downloaded for free. Additionally, legislation and reports to accompany legislation may be accessed at www.Congress.Gov, the official website for U.S. federal legislative information. Congress.gov supersedes the THOMAS system which was retired on July 5, 2016.
